“Farewell To Spring...Hello To Summer” Business Mixer Scheduled

Union Bay, British Columbia – Grab your business cards and get ready to network...and relax. Two Eagles Lodge and SmartBiz Strategy, a marketing consulting company, are sponsoring the June 17 Comox Valley Chamber of Commerce Business Mixer, “Farewell to Spring. Hello to Summer!” starting at 5:30pm.

In addition to networking, plenty of food, and tours of the B&B and vacation rental, guests are invited to bring a lawn chair to stay into the evening for an acoustic jam that will feature some of the Valley’s most talented singer-songwriters and anyone else who wants to bring an instrument to participate.

While there is no charge for the event, reservations are requested by June 15. Please call 250-334-3234. Chamber membership is not required to attend. Non-members are welcome, too.

The location of the mixer, 6409 Old Island Highway, is just 10 minutes south of Courtenay, and one mile north of the Denman Ferry at Buckley Bay.

Two Eagles Lodge, owned by Carolyn & Steve Touhey is a B&B located on 12-pastoral acres overlooking the protected waters of the Georgia Strait and Denman Island with coastal mountains in the distance. Two Eagles was built in 2007 and offers guests private-entrance accommodations with private baths, a guest kitchenette, and a lounge; in addition to the B&B rooms, there is a vacation rental which sleeps six.

For more information, contact the Chamber at 250-334-3234.
